What if I have a prior working experience to apply for (RPL)?

The competencies within this qualification may be attained through previous or current training, work experience, and/or life experience. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) considers previous attainments which are measured against the specific performance criteria for each full unit or partial unit of competence. IIPD is able to provide guidelines and assistance in undertaking Recognition of Prior Learning.

IIPD will ensure that all applicants will have access to the recognition of prior learning (RPL) policy and procedures.

Applications for RPL will be managed efficiently by a qualified assessor, using a process which is valid, fair, sufficient and authentic.

An applicant for RPL is responsible for the provision of suitable & sufficient evidence, as required by the RPL Kit and assessment tool.

Credit for units of competency will be provided if a candidate who applies for recognition of prior learning is able to demonstrate learning, skills and knowledge that meet the performance criteria of the units of competency for which the candidate is applying for recognition of prior learning.

IIPD's RPL assessment process, including the design and function of the RPL assessment tool, will be subject to a regular validation process to ensure that it is consistent with the principles of assessment and the rules of evidence.

What if I have already completed the same units & want to seek Credit Transfer?

IIPD recognises qualifications issued under the Australian Qualifications Framework and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations.
