

CPCCOHS1001A Work Safely in the Construction Industry (White Card) (Superseded)

This course provides participants with basic principles of health and safety in the construction industry in NSW Information about preventing workplace injury and illness, workplace injury management and workers compensation in NSW.

This Course aimed at all new workers carrying out construction work

Including:

- Self-employed persons
- Laborers
- Apprentices
- Trainees
- Trades-persons
- Supervisors and project managers

Course outline:

- WH&S legislation in NSW
- Consultation and communication in WH&S
- Implementing health and safety for construction work
- Workplace emergencies and first aid for construction work

Training Course Outcomes:

After successful completion participants will receive Nationally Recognized Statement of Attainment.

Workshop Duration:

➤ 6.5 hours

The course duration is 6 & 1/2 hours which involves lectures, group discussions and assessment at the end of the course, allow for course duration to be extended if required.

Training methods place an emphasis on group discussion, group exercises and the interaction of course participants.

Workshop Fee:

Please confirm course fees with IIPD before start (Fees are subject to change without notice)

Important note:

From 1 September 2009 Work Cover introduced new evidence of identity (EOI) 100 Point ID requirement for participants attending WHS Induction for Construction Work (Green/White Card). After successful completion participants will receive Nationally Recognized Work Cover Certificates.

RTO Details: 21122

For more information:

Please contact our friendly staff at:

International Institute for Professional Development – (IIPD)

Phone: 1300 786 456

Fax: 02 9012 0753

E-mail: info@iipd.edu.au

Web: www.iipd.edu.au