ABOUT STUDYING IN AUSTRALIA

Did you know Australia has the third highest number of International students in the world? Australia has been internationally acknowledged in providing excellent education and training. That is why it is one of the most preferred study destinations amongst overseas students. In regards to education and training, students also enjoy the country's social, sporting and other outdoor activities. Students often experience the exceptional city places, its entertainment facilities, its splendid natural environment and distinctive wildlife. With its multicultural & diverse people, Australia is a safe place to live while studying. Australia also provides international students with wonderful opportunities and experiences, not only on their personal front, but also professional development.

International Institute for Professional Development (IIPD) is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO), training its students in the Vocational Education Sector (VET Sector), in line with the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) which ensures that all awards provided by IIPD, are nationally recognized. IIPD delivers practical and career-oriented training to their students who gain hands-on skills & experience required by employers when taking on prospective employees.

IIPD is registered on the Commonwealth Register for Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) at the Federal Government level with the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) to deliver courses to overseas students studying in Footscray (Melbourne, Victoria) and Parramatta (Sydney, New South Wales) in Australia.

Australian government legislation requires strict quality assurance practices and codes to be in place so that international students in Australia enjoy a level of service and financial protection that is unrivalled.

International Institute for Professional Development offers high quality internationally pertinent award courses and this is enforced through State and Commonwealth government legislations.

DEFERRAL, SUSPENSION OR CANCELLATION OF ENROLMENT POLICY

Under certain limited circumstances, a student's enrolment may be deferred or temporarily suspended at the request of the student.

Deferment means to delay the commencement of a course. Suspension of enrolment means to temporarily put studies on hold (adjourn, delay, postpone).

DEFERMENT OR SUSPENSION OF ENROLMENT BY STUDENT

Students who wish to defer or temporarily suspend their enrolment can apply to do so only if the course in which they were enrolled is unavailable, their visa is delayed or there are compassionate or compelling circumstances (as defined in the Compassionate or Compelling Circumstances Policy).

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

Supporting documents must be provided by a student to support an application for deferment, suspension or cancellation. Supporting documents may include medical certificates, death certificates, police reports, psychologist's reports and any other relevant documents. Supporting documents must be original documents or certified copies of original documents.

STUDENT APPLICATION FOR DEFERMENT PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT

A request by a student for a deferment prior to course commencement must be made using the application for deferment, suspension or cancellation of enrolment. The application must be addressed to the RTO Manager. The application must be accompanied by supporting documents.

When the application is processed, and if a deferment is granted, the student will receive a revised offer of enrolment (a revised Enrolment Agreement) and a revised CoE (Confirmation of Enrolment).

NOTIFYING A STUDENT THE OUTCOME OF AN APPLICATION FOR DEFERMENT PRIOR TO ENROLMENT

An applicant for deferment prior to commencement will have a written notification result of the application which will be available within 10 working days from the lodgment of the application.

The student will be notified the outcome of the application for deferment by use of either the:

- "Notice of approval for deferment, suspension or cancellation of enrolment", or the
- "Notice of rejection of application for deferment, suspension or cancellation of enrolment".

STUDENT APPLICATION FOR SUSPENSION

- A request for temporary suspension of enrolment must be made using the application for deferment, suspension or cancellation of enrolment. The application must be addressed to the Student Services Manager. The application must be accompanied by supporting documents.
- An application for suspension must be submitted at least 10 working days before the date of the requested suspension. A student may request a suspension of up to six months.

NOTIFYING A STUDENT THE OUTCOME OF AN APPLICATION FOR SUSPENSION OF ENROLMENT

- An applicant for a suspension of enrolment will have written notification of the result of the application available within 10 working days of lodgment of the application.

EFFECT OF DEFERRAL, SUSPENSION OR CANCELLATION OF ENROLEMENT ON A STUDENT VISA

Deferral, suspension or cancellation of an enrolment is likely to have an effect on a student's visa. Students should contact the nearest DIBP office or refer to <http://www.border.gov.au/students/students/chooser/> for further information. All deferrals, suspensions and cancellations of enrolment are notified to DIBP via the PRISMS system and all documentation about the deferral, suspension or cancellation of a student is filed in the student's file.

DEFERRALS, SUSPENSIONS OR CANCELLATIONS BY IIPD

- Under certain limited circumstances, a student's enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled by IIPD.
- Deferment means to delay the commencement of a course.

- Suspension means the temporary postponement of enrolment during a course.
- Cancellation means termination of enrolment in a course.

SUSPENSION

IIPD may temporarily suspend a student's enrolment if the student's behavior is assessed as unacceptable for an educational setting. The RTO Manager in consultation with the CEO is responsible for making this assessment. This is referred to as suspension of enrolment due to misbehavior.

GROUNDS TO SUSPEND A STUDENT FOR MISBEHAVIOUR

IIPD may suspend the student due to his/her misbehavior if the student:

- has been in breach of the IIPD Student Code of Conduct
- is assessed by the CEO as providing a threat to the well-being of other students or staff
- has been assessed as behaving in a way such as to constitute serious misconduct
- Applicants are advised of each of these grounds for suspension due to misbehavior prior to signing the Enrolment Agreement.

If the suspension of a student's enrolment will result in the student being unable to complete the course within the course duration as specified on the eCoE, the student must apply for a course extension by making a written request with the RTO Manager. The student will be advised to check with the nearest DIBP office for information about the impact of the extension of the course on the student's visa.

CANCELLATION

IIPD may cancel the enrolment of a student if the student:

- is in breach of a condition of ongoing enrolment, including: the requirement to have a satisfactory competency achieved every study period (50 percent and more), the requirement to not plagiarize, collude or cheat the requirement to pay agreed tuition fees by the dates agreed in the Enrolment Agreement
- has been in breach of the IIPD Student Code of Conduct
- is assessed by the CEO as providing a threat to the well-being of other students or staff
- has been assessed as behaving in a way such as to constitute serious misconduct
- fails to meet the requirements of the course progress policy

- fails to pay tuition fees

Applicants are advised of each of these grounds for deferment, suspension or cancellation prior to signing the Enrolment Offer and Acceptance Agreement.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DEFER, SUSPEND OR CANCEL ENROLMENT

Where a deferment, suspension or cancellation is initiated by IIPD, the student will receive a notice of intention to defer, suspend or cancel enrolment.

IIPD FEE REFUND POLICY

This refers to those instances where:

- the course does not start on the agreed starting day, or
- the course ceases to be provided at any time after it starts but before it is completed, or
- the course is not provided in full to the student because a sanction has been imposed on IIPD under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000
- And the student has not withdrawn before the day of default.

DEFAULT BY THE STUDENT

This refers to those instances where:

- the course starts on the agreed starting day, but the student does not start the course on that day (and has not previously withdrawn); or
- the student withdraws from the course (either before or after the agreed starting day); or
- IIPD refuses to provide, or continue providing, the course to the student in one or more of the following events:
 - The Student failed to pay an amount he or she was liable to pay IIPD, directly or indirectly (including any course money collected by education agents on behalf of IIPD, in order to undertake the course);
 - The student breached a condition of his or her Student visa;

- Misbehavior by the Student.

If a Student cancels their enrolment before the commencement date of a course and requests a refund:

Student Withdrawal	10 weeks or more before Semester	20% Less of tuition fees will be refunded
Student Withdrawal	4 to 10 weeks before Semester	40% Less of tuition fees will be refunded
Student Withdrawal	Less than 4 weeks before Semester	60% Less of tuition fees will be refunded
Student Withdrawal	After Semester commencement -irrespective of visa grant outcome for Local International student	No Refund
Student Withdrawal	Because of Visa Refusal	If the student is refused a visa, IIPD will provide a full refund deducting the enrolment fee.

The written request must be in the refund form along with documentation. The refund will be processed within 28 days of the written request being received.

If a Student is able to demonstrate that matters beyond their control have resulted in the request for a refund of a portion of tuition fees that have been paid in advance, that Student may be eligible for a refund.

No refund will be issued to any Student who has deferred their enrolment.

MARKETING

The institute is required to inform you certain information so that you are not deceived or misled. It is important that you should note the following points;-

- The institute make no claims about employment outcomes that you might gain as a result of undertaking a course of study by us.
- Your enrolment in a course with us does not guarantee your automatic acceptance into another course offered by this institute or a course of study offered by any other institute/University.
- Migration to Australia is an issue that is no way associated with your studies at the institute. The institute is required to recruit students in an ethical and responsible manner and provide information which enables students to make informed decisions about studying with us.
- We are required to ensure that your qualifications, experience and English language proficiency are appropriate to the course in which you wish to enroll. Please read our entry requirements which describe the requirements for acceptance into a course, including the minimum level of English language proficiency, educational qualifications or work experience requirement.

AGENTS

The institute chooses an education agent to represent us after due diligence i.e., the agent has an appropriate knowledge and understanding of the Australian international education industry and has a reputation for honesty and integrity in dealing with international students.

FORMALISATION OF AGREEMENT

The institute is required to sign a written agreement between you and the College which sets out the services to be provided, fees payable and information in relation to refunds. The institute will not accept any fees or charges prior to the agreement being signed.

All students are to complete an 'Enrolment Agreement' on acceptance into any course offered by International Institute for Professional Development and prior to paying any fees to International Institute for Professional Development.

The student will previously have submitted an application form and received all information relating to living in Australia and studying at to International Institute for Professional Development.

An enrolment Agreement is only issued when a student has submitted an application for study. Student Administration will provide each potential student with an enrolment agreement as the final stage of acceptance into a course of study with to International Institute for Professional Development. This agreement is to be signed and submitted by the student with appropriate payment and documentation to support their enrolment. The application form, refund policy and standard conditions of enrolment will be incorporated into the agreement.

The "Enrolment Agreement shall contain as a minimum the following information:

Identify the course or courses in which the student is to be enrolled and any conditions on his or her enrolment; Provide an itemized list of course money payable by the student; Provide information in relation to refunds of course money; Set out the circumstances in which personal information about the student may be shared between the registered provider and the Australian Government and designated authorities and, if relevant, the Tuition Assurance Scheme and the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager. This information includes personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and the circumstance of any suspected breach by the student of a student visa condition; and advise the student of his or her obligation to notify the registered provider of a change of address while enrolled in the course

This agreement shall be signed and returned to International Institute for Professional Development as an indication that the student accepts the terms and conditions imposed when studying with to International Institute for Professional Development. Please read the detailed enrolment policy on our website in policies page.

ACCOMODATION AND LIVING EXPENSES

An international single student living in Sydney requires approximately AU$18,000-$35,000 for living expenses each year (Australian Education International) Note: This figure does not include tuition fees. Remember that your cost of living in Sydney will vary according to your lifestyle. For example, eating out at restaurants all the time will increase your living costs a lot, as will driving a car (you will have to pay for petrol, registration, maintenance and insurance, as well as the car itself). For more info visit <http://www.studyinaustralia.gov.au/en/Living-in-Australia>

SUGGESTED WEEKLY BUDGET

Remember figures are in Australia dollars and likely to be estimated:

- Accommodation $150 to $350 (for a room in a shared house or apartment) per week
- Food A$60 to A$120 per week
- Public transport A$30 to A$50 per week

SHORT TERM ACCOMODATION

A range of suitable accommodation is available for short stays immediately on arrival. These expenses are payable by students directly to the owners of the premises. IIPD can arrange this short term accommodation on behalf of students. Students are advised to contact IIPD early as availability is seasonal and most places require some advance payments with the bookings.

LONG TERM ACCOMODATION

Long term accommodation for overseas students is available. This includes rental and home stay accommodation. IIPD provides accommodation assistance to overseas students including advice on location, tenancy agents, and rental agreements etc. Overseas students are provided with a list of internet sites and agents so that they can select their accommodation in advance. IIPD is happy to make accommodation bookings on behalf of students. Students are advised to contact IIPD before signing any contract or paying any money to real estate agents.

ESOS FRAMEWORK INFORMATION

Students should be aware that information provided by them may be shared between the provider, Australian Government and designated authorities and if relevant with TAS. (Please open link in another window)

<http://www.aei.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Education-Services-for-Overseas-Students-ESOS-LegislativeFramework/ESOS-Act/Pages/default.aspx> -

The following is from information provided by Australian Education International (AEI) (www.aei.gov.au)

The Australian Government wants overseas students in Australia to have a safe, enjoyable and rewarding place to study. Australia's laws promote quality education and consumer protection for overseas students.

These laws are known as the ESOS framework and they include the Education Services for Overseas (ESOS) Act 2000 and the National Code 2007.

PROTECTION FOR OVERSEAS STUDENTS

As an overseas student on a student visa, you must study with an education provider and in a course that can be found on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) at <http://cricos.deewr.gov.au>. CRICOS registration guarantees that the course and the education provider at which you study meet the high standards necessary for overseas students.

Please check carefully that the details of your course - including its location - match the information on CRICOS.

YOUR RIGHTS

The ESOS framework protects your rights, including:

- You're right to receive, before enrolling, current and accurate information about the courses, fees, modes of study and other information from your provider and your provider's agent. If you are under 18, to ensure your safety, you will be granted visas only if there are arrangements in place for your accommodation, support and welfare.
- Your rights to sign a written agreement with your provider before or as you pay fees, setting out the services to be provided, fees payable and information about refunds of course money. You should keep a copy of your written agreement.
- You're right to get the education you paid for. The ESOS framework includes consumer protection that will allow you to receive a refund or to be placed in another course if your provider is unable to teach your course.

The ESOS framework sets out the standards Australian education providers offering education services to overseas students must obey. These standards cover a range of information you have a right to know and services that must be offered, including:

- Orientation and access to support services to help you study and adjust to life in Australia
- Who the contact officer or officers is for overseas students
- If you can apply for course credit
- When your enrolment can be deferred, suspended or cancelled
- What your provider's requirements are for satisfactory progress in the courses you study and what support is available if you are not progressing well
- If attendance will be monitored for your course, and a complaints and appeals process.
- One of the standards does not allow another education provider to enrol a student who wants to transfer to another course, but has not completed six months of the final course of study you plan to undertake in Australia. If you want to transfer beforehand you need your provider's permission.

- If you are under 18, to ensure your safety, you will be granted a visa only if there is arrangements in place for your accommodation, support and welfare.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

As an overseas student on a student visa, you have responsibilities to:

- satisfy your student visa conditions
- maintain your Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the period of your stay
- Create or give authorization to IIPD for the creation of your Unique Student Identifier.(Refer Student Handbook)
- meet the terms of the written agreement with your education provider
- inform your provider if you change your address
- maintain satisfactory course progress
- if attendance is recorded for your course, follow your provider's attendance policy, and
